

OCTOBER 5, 2018, FRIDAY

CARVED: THE SLIT-MOUTHED WOMAN

Japan/2007/Kōji Shiraishi/90 min.

Legend holds that thirty years ago, a suburban town was terrorized by the spirit of a woman whose beautiful face had been grotesquely disfigured by a jealous husband. Roaming the streets wearing a long coat and surgical masks, the spirit would approach young victims and, while removing her mask, ask “Am I pretty?” The victim’s response would almost always lead to their violent death.

Now, one by one, children are disappearing again. As teachers and officials desperately begin to investigate, a panic begins to build as the woman’s spirit returns for some unfinished business and the town’s dark secrets are exposed.

[Synopsis © Tartan Video]

Asian Horror Film Series

Fall 2018

Location:
Neville 003

Time: 4:10PM

Free & Open only to Lehigh
students/faculty/staff

PRESENTED BY

Professor Kyoko Taniguchi
kyt213@lehigh.edu

Co-sponsored by
MLL/Asian Studies

Japanese with English subtitles